National Society of the Sons & Daughters of the United States Middle Passage Online Application

This is a worksheet (DO NOT SUBMIT)--Only used with online application see:
https://form.jotform.com/220883156891161

Thank you for using the online version of our application. By using it, you are saving time, postage, and paper. Processing time is 4–6 weeks. The sections of the application is as follows: 1. General information; 2. Honored ancestor including information about children and spouse; 3. Enslavement information; 4. Applicant information (Generation 1); 5.Parent's Information (Generation 2); and Ancestor information for generations 3–9. At the end, we ask you to pay $65.00 (full application) or $25.00 (supplemental--for members adding additional members).

IMPORTANT NOTE BEFORE STARTING: For each generation, please assemble pictures or scans of documents supporting connections to each generation, date of birth, place of birth, date of death, place of death, marriage or divorce certificates, etc, before completing this application.

Document upload: Each name and dates and places of birth, deaths, marriage and divorce must be supported by convincing evidence (such as vital records or other such documents). If you are missing this information, please prepare a statement supporting why the data you are providing is convincing evidence. You can separate the documents and create scans by generation, uploaded by section/generation or make one large scan at any point in the application. If you chose one upload/one scan, please separate the documents by generations/section with a "title page" (Generation 1 or Enslavement Support, etc).

- Names: Use full or legal names. A nickname should be written in "quotes." Maiden names of all female ancestors must be included for the line leading back to the Honored Ancestor.
- Dates: List dates in dd mmm yyyy format (for example: 25 Dec 1928). If you're unsure of the day or year, use the words before, after, or about before the date.

You can also use ca. (circa) to indicate an estimate.

- In the references areas of the online application , at the end of each generation, list the documentation you used for each generation, including documents to prove the relationship between generations.

 If you need help, please email us at info@sdusmp.org.

The applicant must support each relationship (marriage and child-parents), name, date, and place. In this section, the applicant tell us the type of documents use to support the information.

To make the application easier to complete, instead of a detailed reference with full citations, the applicant can check the box for each type document uploaded. However, to assist future descendants in locating documents, complete citations are requested but are optional. To make this process as easy as possible, we encourage each applicant to "copy and paste" this information from genealogical software.

Select all documents (see Appendix at end of this document)   used to support the names, relationships, dates, places and connections to previous generations. Upload each document(s) below. (G2)
